Texas Civil Justice League PAC Endorses Pro-Jobs Statewide Slate State's First Legal Reform Coalition Cites Experience and Proven Records

AUSTIN, TEXAS – The Texas Civil Justice League Political Action Committee (TCJL PAC), the state's first legal reform coalition, has endorsed a pro-jobs candidate slate for the statewide primary election, Tuesday, March 2, 2010.

"Voters will go to the polls in a few weeks and determine the future of Texas," said Red McCombs, San Antonio businessman and TCJL PAC chairman. "The Texas Civil Justice League PAC is honored to endorse legislative, judicial, and statewide candidates who will protect economic recovery and job creation."

"Texas has fared better than most states in the economic downturn because of a strong civil justice system that promotes business investment and jobs," said George S. Christian, TCJL PAC treasurer. "These candidates will stand up for working families and job creators, whether they are legislators making the laws or judges interpreting them."

Established in 1988, the TCJL PAC supports legislative, judicial and statewide candidates—regardless of party affiliation—committed to an efficient and fair state civil justice system.
